GEORGE ADE COMEDY-BIJOU,

ot. "The Cays of Death," a Kalem west-n production in two parts, will comern production in two parts, will complete the program.
Sunday will be Mary Pickford day again, featuring this popular little actress in two different pictures. Buslet and His Goat, "a wery laughable comesy, will also be shown. This is a great picture for the children and they should all see it.
Monday, "Kif, the Arkansaw Traveler," in three parts, will be the bill.—Adv.

MARY PICKFORD COMING.

"Little Mary" Pickford, "the lady dainty of the photoplay," will be seen Monlay at the Wigwam in two Biograph reissues. They are "join's Promise" and The Femile at the Species," both of which were produced under the direction of D. W. Griffith, the "lion," both of which were produced under the direction of D. W. Come and see the combined work of the prestest photopiny arrists, Miss Pickford and Mr. Griffith.—Adarrissment. MARY PICKFORD COMING.

SIDNEY DREW AT WIGWAM. SIDNEY DREW AT WIGWAM. Today's feature at the Wigwam is "Stanley, the Liou Killer," a very funny two reel comedy, in which Sidney Drew has the lead. It is a story of mistaken identity and Mr. Drew has ample opportunities which he accepts. He will be remembered by picture fans for his great work in "A Regiment for Two." Mr. Drew was formerly a vauderville headliner and a star in legitimate comedies. He is a brother of John Drew. There will also be a good Biograph drama on the bill, "The Gypay Tallsman."—Advertisement.

"THE BRIDGE THAT FAILED."

The Bridge That Failed will be shown at the Albambra tonight. It is a drama full of realism and strong emotions. Miss Minnle Les McCamant, former El Paso girl, is appearing in a vaudeville aketch this week. Two other good acts make up the splendid program. Next Tuesday and Wednesday, "Les Miserables," in motion pictures, will be featured. It will be the most entertaining film ever exhibited bere.—Adv.

The Edison three-part adaptation of Southet's comedy, "My Friend From India," at the Wixwam Monday, will show how successfully a spoken comedy may be repreduced in motion pictures. It will also demanstrate that Walter E. Perkins, as the alleged the coophist, can be quite as funny on the series as on the stage, for Mr. Perkins plays his original part in the photopiay.—Advertisement.

(Mr. Abbott is automobile editor of the Phoenix Republican and Renched El Pasa inst night in company with M. L. Naguin in a Velle, over the Borderland fair this fall is worth exactly 25 miles an hour for the 517 miles. Knockers horus comes back, "Nit."

Eliminate about 50 miles of mudned old San will do that-and there is good old Sun will do that—and there is no question about the way those wagons will reel off the miles Lordaburg to Rodeo is the jink stretch—and no bunch of mud ever deserved a inner name. But few of the weary miles between Douglas and Phoenix have changed since the first big race. The few that have changed, have improved, Out of Hisbes there is a peril of five or 10 miles—peril only because it is so almighty fast that nothing short of a layed accident policy will prevent the drivers from making a million miles a minute. Thanks to the state highway people for this.

Shire Now it's rather funny about Caoper's Stutz. Earl anguired a notion that the racing game was paying Harry, of Indianapelis, too biame big a persentage of the car's winnings. So he says to agent Brown over in Los Angeles: "Brownie, how much will you take for On Number Eight." Brown named the price, Cooper haggled and then paid it, and today we have the honor to be recording Mr. Cooper's courteous inquiry about the El Paso to Phoenix automobile race.

Half denen sources of information give us this dope.

Thirty-five to 40 entries. Bigger price mensy than for the classic Los Angeles to Phoenix race. Paster time by at least three miles per hou. More interest along the road. Bigger advertising value among the folk of the east and north. Better results all ground.
